

Extra Duty Employment

|          |                        |  |
|----------|------------------------|--|
| 1 | PURPOSE         | The Police Act of Nova Scotia mandates that the Board of Police Commissioners shall establish a written policy respecting extra-duty employment by members of its police department  |
| 2 | DEFINITIONS     | Extra-duty employment shall mean all police-related duties, sanctioned by the Chief of Police, other than that normally provided by the Bridgewater Police Department  |
| 3 | POLICY          | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a) The Chief of Police shall establish an Administrative Policy to provide direction to the members of the Bridgewater Police department regarding Extra-Duty Employment</li> <li>b) requests for a member of the Bridgewater Police Department to be employed on extra duty must be made to the chief officer;</li> <li>c) a member of the Bridgewater Police Department engaged in extra-duty employment be in uniform except where the chief officer determines that plain clothes are required; and</li> <li>d) at all times while on extra duty the member of the Bridgewater Police Department is under the orders of the police department and no one else.</li> </ul> |
| 4 | REFERENCES      | Police Act of Nova Scotia, s 56 (1)  |
| 5 | APPENDICES      | Copy of Bridgewater Chief of Police Policy on Extra-Duty Employment.   |
| 6 | APPROVAL DATES: | Approved: March 2020 Reviewed: Revised:  |
| 7 | CONTACT:        | BPC@bridgewaterpolice.ca   |